BIORACER

"If you can dream it, you can achieve it." Since the early days, this raw ambition and dedication is pushing our racers and athletes to epic results. It asks for passion, devotion, and innovation. Characteristics all members of the Bioracer family have in common with both our professional racers and millions of ambitious riders worldwide. No matter how big or small their goal, we strive to make them pedal faster to success.

Our core focus is the performance of our racers. "Man is the measure of all things", the philosophy of Da Vinci's Vitruvian man, has been the inspiration for our high-performance cycling apparel and services. By genuinely listening to our customers' challenges, understanding their needs, and prioritizing the solution, we constantly get triggered to innovate. Your dream is ours.

Founded in Belgium, the spiritual heartland of cycling, more than a hundred years of cycling history is woven into every stitch. The cycling know-how and legacy of generations of cycling lovers are translated into performance apparel and game-changing services. Developed in Belgium, race proven by pro's and available for all racers worldwide.

It's not about your level, it's about your ambition. Whether you ride for glory among friends or go for Olympic gold. We want to inspire you to dream big, succeed and reach higher. And along the way, we make you a promise:

WE MAKE YOU FASTER!

A group of cyclists riding on a paved road. The lead cyclist is in the center, wearing a red and blue Rapha Icon jersey, a white helmet, and blue sunglasses. He is leaning forward in a racing position. To his left, another cyclist in a similar jersey and white helmet is also leaning forward. To the right, a third cyclist in a blue and red jersey and blue helmet is visible. They are all riding on a paved road with green trees and foliage in the background.
